WHAT IS BEING DONE and WHAT TO DO

The Sierra Madre Civil Defense Office, under the capable leadership of Milton Emerson, makes the following informational statement: A rough draft of proposals and shelters is now ready. Within a few hours or days this information will be put before each City Councilman for pre-study. This information is expected to be on the Agenda for discussion at the regular Council Meeting of November 13, with a plan of action to follow.

As a result of the present international tensions, the public is asking for considerable information and advice on what to do if war comes. Here are brief answers to questions most frequently asked:

1. Where can I get information about what to do?

ANSWER: Local governments, under the National Civil Defense Plan, have the basic responsibility to provide information and instructions for the public. Therefore, you should contact your local Civil Defense Office or your local government for information and advice.

2. What kinds of food should I have for an emergency?

ANSWER: For years Civil Defense has urged that you have a two-weeks supply of food per person. Select foods with long shelf-life; which do not need refrigeration, and which can, if necessary, be served without cooking or adding water. Insofar as possible, store normal foods your family enjoys, and which constitute a balanced diet. Include high moisture foods and fruit juices. Avoid thirst-producing foods. Remember special diet and infant supplies. Keep a portable supply of food and water in a basket or box. Obtain further information at your local Civil Defense Office.

3. What other things, beside food, would a family need?

ANSWER: Water. This should be stored in cans or sealed non-breakable containers; glass bottles or jugs are satisfactory, but are fragile. There should be at least seven gallons of fluid per person—more, if dehydrated foods are stored. In addition, each family should consider a first aid kit, and medical handbook, battery radio, eating utensils, tools, toilet facilities, blankets, timepiece, map of state, a checklist of last-minute responsibilities, and other items based on a carefully considered family plan that makes provisions for emergencies on an around-the-clock basis.

4. Where are fallout shelters located?

ANSWER: For the past year the federal government has been conducting the Na-

The total tax rate for the city of Sierra Madre, for the period from July 1, 1962 to June 30th, 1963, is $1.71 per $100 assessed valuation. The breakdown on this figure, total money received, and what services are provided is as follows:

1. General Fund — $1.00 — $165,000. The property tax raises approximately 50 per cent of the total money needed for the services provided from the general fund, which services include the operations of the city clerk, treasurer, administrator, attorney, engineer, building inspector, civil defense, police and fire departments, maintaining, cleaning and lighting of streets, and trimming of street trees, and the operation of the swimming pool and recreation program.

2. Park Fund — 20.9 cents — $34,400. This property tax money provides for maintenance and improvement of the three city parks (Sierra Vista, Memorial and Bailey Canyon). Over $10,000 in capital improvements are planned for the parks, including the swimming pool, for this year. The other major items are $16,000 for salaries, and $2100 for utilities such as water, telephone and electricity.

3. Library Fund — 22 cents — $36,200. The property tax provides almost 85 per cent of the funds to operate the library with the remainder coming from book fines and sales tax. The two major items of expense are $29,172 for salaries and $6500 for books and magazines.

4. Flood Control Fund — 20 cents — $32,900. This is a new tax this year and the money will be used exclusively for major Flood Control facilities such as debris basins and storm drains to help control the run off of rainfall. Despite the efforts of the U. S. Army Engineers and the County Flood Control District, last year's fire brought about much expensive flood control work, still to be done. This work will need to be financed by some program over the next few years.

5. Interest and Sinking Fund — 3.8 cents — $6250. This money is to pay off bonds which were sold for past improvements such as the 1923 Park bonds, 1927 City Hall bonds, and the 1924 and 1928 Water bonds. The total present bonded indebtedness of Sierra Madre is only $30,500, which is one of the lowest for any city in California.

6. Retirement Fund — 10.4 cents — $17,106. This money is used exclusively for the city portion of employee retirement costs. This amount, together with the employee contribution is used for retirement at age 60 or 65 of all employees, including the library, police, fire, public works and general office.

After a business stop with Actors Equity in Hollywood she spent several days in our little town, and fell in love with it.

U.S.O. To Help Local Drive

The Community Chest thermometer now reads $5,000, with many homes yet to be contacted. Some volunteers have not been able to complete their assignments due to illness in the family, and a second round of solicitations will be carried on in November.

The United Service Organizations have always helped in larger cities where they have headquarters, and this year the Los Angeles area is extending this assistance to outlying areas, by sending Junior Hostesses to help with solicitations.

On Saturday, Nov. 3, Sierra Madre will have ten of these young ladies going door-to-door for our united cause. Welcome, and thank you, USO helpers.

Lipscomb Says To Act Now On Cuba

"Act now! Tomorrow may be too late." This was the admonition of Congressman Glen Lipscomb, speaking on Cuba at the Sierra Madre Woman's Club on Wednesday evening, Oct. 24. An enthusiastic crowd responded lustily to a factual address by Lipscomb on the many problems now facing the nation.

"On Cuba," Lipscomb said, I support President Kennedy in whatever action it is necessary for him to take to protect us from the Communist basis 90 miles from our shores. I favor kicking the Communists out of Cuba entirely." This statement brought vigorous applause from the audience.

Congressman Lipscomb, Republican, now nine years a member of the House, has an outstanding record as a ranking member of the powerful House Appropriations Committee, member of the Department of Defense Appropriations Subcommittee, of the State, Commerce, Justice, Judiciary Appropriations Sub-committee, Select Committee on Export Control, House Administration Committee and chairman of the California Republican Delegation in Congress.

In Congress, Lipscomb has worked energetically and successfully in opposition to the President's Federal Aid to Education and many other programs of new frontierism, which have been effectively blocked by a coalition of Democrats and Republicans. Lipscomb's outstanding work in Congress has been his endeavor to block sending strategic materials to Communist-bloc countries, which in turn could be used against us.

Congressman Lipscomb, now running for reelection in the 24th Congressional District, which sprawls from Glendale to the San Bernardino County line, locally replaces Eck Hiestand, highly respected and well-revered Republican Representative, now running for reelection in the 27th District.

Entering the house they stumbled over a log with a corpse stretched out, then were taken to the spook house room by Susan, the Davids' daughter (operated by Mike Sweet and Wally David) where black bats and goblins floated out, and out to the bar for drinks and snacks to find life size witches stirring brew in their cauldrons.

Stand Ready to Help

Republican Headquarters Geared for Election

Months of mounting activity and campaigning for favorite candidates will reach their zenith for Sierra Madre Republicans next Tuesday, November 6, at 7 a.m., when polls open in the 24 precincts for the election of state and national officials.

Republican Headquarters, 53 N. Baldwin, will be open on election day from 10:30 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. for precinct information, transportation and baby sitting arrangements and campaign and proposition information. For information, call EL 5-7232, Headquarters, any day. An election day, EL 5-8464 also may be called.

"The workers at the Republican Headquarters and all precinct captains stand ready to help in every way they can to put our candidates in office. We are aiming at a 100% Republican vote for all Republican candidates. We urge every Republican and all others who will be voting for our candidates to make a special effort to vote and to vote early next Tuesday. After the polls are closed at 7 p.m., join us for coffee at Headquarters when the early returns start coming in. We also remind you that now is the time to send in the contribution which you intended doing but haven't done yet. We also urge every Republican to do last-minute campaigning among your friends in other parts of the state and throughout the country to 'Go Republican.' Hop on the bandwagon—let's make this a Republican victory year in California," are the final words of encouragement from Claude H. Brown Jr., Sierra Madre Republicans president and Town Precinct Chairman.

Letters to the Editor

I may not believe in what the man says, but I will defend to my death his right to say it.—(similar words of Voltaire)

Dear Editor:

Readers of Mr. Witty's column last week could never guess from what he writes that the opponents of the Francis Anti-Communist Amendment (Proposition 24) include practically every responsible person or group in the State of California from Governor Brown, candidate Nixon, and the Los Angeles Times on down.

Why, then, do the polls show (Mr. Witty is quite correct here) that the Amendment is popular?

Because the text of the Amendment as abbreviated on the ballot does not adequately explain what the very long and complicated measure would actually permit.

"Section 3 says in effect" (I am quoting from the Los Angeles Times of 1 April 1962) "that if a grand jury declares an organization to be Communist, then that organization stands convicted—solely on the basis of the grand jury's accusation—of in fact being Communist."

The odious feature of Section 3 lies in the privileged irresponsibility of the whole array of denouncers. The accused has no recourse against them, even though an accusation of communism can be a deadly charge. It can ruin the accused even though it is unproved.

Since the measure is self-executing (Section 11) the Legislature will have no chance to introduce the safeguards of due process of it carries.

And since it supersedes other anti-Communist provisions now in our State Constitution (Section 13) there is the very real possibility that if it is challenged successfully in the courts, after passing, we will actually end up with fewer laws against Communists than we have at present!

But the real objection remains the shotgun character of the measure. It is not really aimed at Communists—we have plenty of laws for that already—but at liberals.

If Mr. Witty is really right, and the Los Angeles Times wrong, you would be doing us all a real service, Editor, if you would explain in an editorial why.

ATTORNEY GENERAL

Join Judge Coakley's crusade against crime in California!

JUDGE TOM COAKLEY BELIEVES...

- That California's shocking high crime rate must be checked.
- That the narcotics traffic must be relentlessly crushed.
- That protection of law-abiding citizens must take precedence over exaggerated concern for the rights of criminals.
- That the public is entitled to have as its chief law enforcement officer a man who will vigorously urge before the Legislature and Courts a strong position on law enforcement and preservation of our American traditions and values.
- That the insidious campaign to remove religious influence from the daily lives of our children must be intelligently and forcefully combatted.
- That all citizens not engaged in subversive activities have the right to hold and voice their political views — whether liberal, conservative or middle-of-the-road — without fear of abuse and ridicule by the Attorney General.
- That California is entitled to a responsible, full-time Attorney General — not one who doubles in brass as the National Committeeman of his political party.

In The Name Of Conservatism . . .

Vote YES For Proposition 1-A

Authorizes $27 million in state general obligation bonds to meet the building construction, equipment and site acquisition needs of State College, junior colleges, junior colleges and the State University; for facilities to care for the mentally retarded and mentally ill; and narcotics control, correctional and forest fire-fighting facilities. Provides that 80 per cent of the bond issue shall be used for the above stated purposes of higher education with at least $20 million to be used for such purposes benefiting public junior colleges.

Because of unprecedented growth in California, additional facilities are needed to serve our expanding population. Building programs must be anticipated to insure an orderly and consistent level of development in important areas of state services. To raise current taxes sufficiently to cover these needs would create an excessive and unfair burden on taxpayers since the facilities to be provided under this Bond Act will also be used by future generations. Unless voters approve these bonds, development of three new campuses of the University of California will be delayed; State colleges will be forced to curtail admissions. Current enrollments require the building of four new junior colleges a year—a burden too great for the local property taxpayer to assume without some help from the State. Equal concern should be given our youth whether they are mentally retarded, delinquent or eager for a college education.

Vote NO On Proposition 1

Provides that the legislators may set their own salary by statute not to exceed $11,250 annually, an amount equal to one-half the annual salary of a member of Congress as of January 1, 1962 (which was $22,500). Provides that any changes in compensation will not be considered in computing retirement benefits.

Salary increases cannot guarantee legislators of higher caliber and could have the opposite effect of attracting candidates more concerned with their respective salaries than with the idea of public service. Another adverse effect could result if "professional" legislators replaced the present "citizen" legislators who are in a better position to understand the problems of the people and the State. Current legislative salaries are in line with those paid in other states and reforms in procedures are more needed at this time to lessen the workload of law-makers than an increase in salary which would still leave them overburdened. Present generous mileage and per diem allowances abet the salary of legislators and increases should be delayed until controls over travel and expense account benefits are tightened. This measure contains no safeguard that retirement and death benefits will be liberalized by changing some feature of the present formula other than the base salary component.

Vote YES For Proposition 2

Includes veteran-owned co-operative housing units in type of property qualifying for $1000 exemption from property taxes granted to veterans, if occupied under "occupancy agreement" by a qualified veteran who has an interest in the corporation or trust which is represented by a membership or share certificate.

This amendment removes the present discrimination against otherwise qualified veterans who do not receive the veterans' tax exemption because they own and occupy homes in co-operative dwelling units rather than single family homes. Types of units qualifying under this change are carefully defined and are limited to units organized and operated under Section 213 of the National Housing Act. The property exemptions of other veterans or other veteran benefits are not affected in any way by this measure.

Vote NO On Proposition 3

Provides that veterans, to be eligible for $1000 property tax exemption, must be residents of California at time of entry into armed forces or on operative date of this amendment. Substitutes the collective term "armed forces" for the list of the various branches of military service now in the Constitution. Stipulates that a survivor, to be entitled to exemption, must be survivor of a qualified veteran and also resident at time of application. Extends exemption to widowers, widowed mothers, or pensioned fathers, as well as widows of qualified veterans. Exemption is denied to survivors owning property assessed at more than $10,000 (raised from present $5,000 limit).

There are two major reasons for opposing this measure. Those who oppose the extension believe that any further liberalization of State benefits to veterans inevitably increases the burden of taxation for all other taxpayers. This proposal extends benefits injudiciously to survivors of veterans rather than to veterans directly, and it is to veterans alone that the State owes its debt. Those who oppose the residence limitation do so because they believe our debt to veterans remains great and that all veterans deserve equal treatment. If no veteran moving to California after November, 1962, is to be eligible for the ordinary $1000 property tax exemption, this rule would spell substantially different treatment for veterans living in California quite unrelated either to the length or nature of their service.

Vote NO On Proposition 4

Provides that the assessor shall consider no factors other than those of agricultural use in assessing land which is now and has been for at least the two previous years used exclusively for agricultural purposes. Requires owner of land to apply in writing to the assessor to obtain agricultural use assessment. Provides further that such land becomes subject to back taxes if its use is subsequently changed from exclusive agricultural purposes. The measure will not be operative in any county or city unless the governing board adopts an ordinance implementing it. Such ordinance will be subject to initiative or referendum by the local electorate.

California's farm land and farm economy are not threatened. Statistics show that California's farm income has tripled in the past two decades. This proposal will not benefit farmers in general—only those whose land has increased in value due to community growth—and at the high cost of lower tax revenues for local governments which must be made up by other taxpayers. This measure will encourage urban sprawl which results when developers "leap frog" across the blocks of close-in land to develop cheaper land which is farther out. The plan will be harmful to the growth of the State's economy by encouraging farmers to withhold lands from their highest and most economical use. Another unfortunate result will be an increase in the cost of farm land for farming. By getting special tax consideration, the value of farm land as investment property will be enhanced. The measure will not insure green space around our cities since much of the land might well be devoted to agricultural uses other than green fields and orchards. Passage of this proposal will greatly increase the cost and difficulties of tax administration and present the assessor with a board with many technical problems. The measure fails to prohibit the exemption of mineral rights underlying farm land and could be extremely extravagant in costs to other taxpayers.

Vote YES For Proposition 5

Grants Legislature power to provide for award to the State in the case of accidental death of an employee without dependents. Such awards may be used for the payment of extra compensation for subsequent injuries beyond the liability of a single employer.

This measure is in full accord with the recommendations of the State Legislative Analyst. It places all the cost of workmen's compensation where the original constitutional provision intended and relieves the burden on the general taxpayer. Only California and one other state do not now place this burden on employers so the plan proposed has been tested and proven in other states. It does not reduce the employee's rights under workmen's compensation in any way, but does guarantee sound financing for "subsequent injury" disabilities.

Vote YES For Proposition 6

Requires all bond issues be submitted to people as a bond act or statute rather than constitutional amendment. Repeals several constitutional provisions on prior bond issues but continues them as statutes. Provides that laws creating state indebtedness or bond issue shall be approved by two-thirds of each house of the Legislature before being submitted to the people.

This amendment will not greatly change the procedures for placing bond issues before the voters, but it will make them consistent by requiring a two-thirds vote of both legislative houses and the Governor's signature. In addition, its approval will simplify and modernize a portion of the State's Constitution by removing many detailed provisions and placing them in statutory law where they belong. No rights are threatened by this proposal and the requirement that all bond issues over $300,000 must be submitted to the voters is retained.

Vote NO On Proposition 7

Empowers the Legislature to propose a revision of the Constitution to be voted on by the people in the same way that specific amendments are now submitted. Does not alter existing provisions for amendment or for revision by convention but provides an alternative method for partial or total constitutional revision.

Giving the voters a choice of adoption or rejection of a proposed constitution in whole or in part is far inferior to giving them the traditional citizen right to elect the drafters of the proposed changes. A convention is the only way to focus public attention on the extremely important process of writing a constitution or making major revisions. The Legislature is not an appropriate body to revise the Constitution. Its members are chosen because of their capacity to deal with legislative matters and they cannot devote the requisite time, research and debate to propose partial or total revision. In addition, legislators are more subject to pressures of the day than would be persons elected for the specific purpose of drafting a constitution. This proposal opens the door to an endless chain of partial revisions which could result in an inferior constitution perpetuating many of the more serious shortcomings of the present document. Present methods of change are entirely adequate, and the present Constitution, although long, is a workable one.

Vote NO On Proposition 8

Permits legislative bills to be heard by committees 20 rather than 30 days after introduction at a general session. Allows Legislature to take a recess not to exceed 10 calendar days, which shall not be counted in computing duration of general session.

A period of 20 days is not long enough to enable a legislature to study a bill thoroughly because of the thousands of bills introduced at each session. This shorter period would also hinder the operations of citizen groups who wish to present their views on pending legislation at committee hearings. It would be almost impossible for such groups to circulate bills among and get response back from their memberships. This shorter interval would make it easier to slip bills through without adequate and careful consideration. The ten-day recess would also in-

Vote YES For Proposition 5

Grants Legislature power to provide for award to the State in the case of accidental death of an employee without dependents. Such awards may be used for the payment of extra compensation for subsequent injuries crease costs to taxpayers to pay for the additional expense allowances for legislators and staff.

Vote YES For Proposition 9

Authorizes the Legislature to create a General Obligation Bond Proceeds Fund into which would go money from the sale of general obligation bonds provided for by any or all existing or future bond acts. Provides further that separate accounts would be maintained in the Fund for each bond issue and that proceeds of each issue will be paid out only in accordance with the law authorizing the particular bond issue.

Such a General Obligation Bond Proceeds Fund eliminates need for separate funds thus simplifying accounting and reporting procedures. Existing funds are adequately protected by the requirement that the proceeds of each bond issue can be spent only for the purposes authorized by the voter.

Vote NO On Proposition 10

Permits the Legislature to extend the welfare exemption from property taxation to all or any portion of property leased for a period of 99 years by community chests, funds, foundations or corporations organized and operated for religious, hospital or charitable purposes not conducted for profit. Such exemption would be effective only in counties in which the board of supervisors authorizes it by an ordinance adopted at least 30 days prior to the lien date for that year. Authorizes the Legislature to adopt such limitations and procedures as are deemed appropriate to assure the intended result of such exemptions.

No other exemption from property taxation can now be applied at the discretion of individual counties. This feature could result in inequitable treatment of welfare organizations from county to county. The phrasing of the amendment is ambiguous and open to various interpretations. It will be difficult to ensure, even by legislation, that in the case of leased property no part of the exemption will insure to the benefit of the owner as well as the lessee. Extending tax exemptions to welfare organizations leasing property will open the door to exemptions for educational and religious institutions. Tax exemptions must stop somewhere and this further erosion of tax rolls is unnecessary.

Vote NO On Proposition 11

Provides manner for assessing real property on which is located any structure of historical significance within a historical landmark area established by state law or city ordinance; owner must agree to pay increased taxes if he changes use during year and pay increased taxes for five preceding years if law or ordinance establishing area is repealed. Before assessor may assess property, Legislature must pass a law specifically so authorizing in that historical landmark area.

The proposal contributes to undermining the property tax base so vital in support of local governments. The purpose of this amendment could be achieved through ordinance, and the advisability of complicating the Constitution with such minor items is questionable.

Vote YES For Proposition 12

Provides that nothing in the Constitution shall prohibit use of State money or credit to aid widows of wartime veterans in the acquisition of, or payments for, farms and homes.

All unremarried widows of California servicemen should receive equal consideration for Cal-Vet loans. Limiting the benefits to widows of veterans who filed before death is unfair and relies too much on fortune or luck. This proposal would permit widows to acquire homes of their own at reasonable cost. Many widows are now supporting themselves and are the sole support of the deceased veteran's children.

Vote YES For Proposition 13

Extends nonprofit college tax exemption to all grounds within which buildings are located used exclusively for purposes of education rather than limiting exempt area to 100 acres.

The limitation for exemption should extend to all land used exclusively for the purposes of education rather than to a 100-acre limitation which has no relation to need. The present limitation is already hampering the growth of several independent colleges and some are now paying taxes on land in excess of the 100 acres. The State Master Plan for Higher Education anticipates a continuing prominent part for independent colleges so this limitation should be removed to equalize the position of independent colleges with state supported colleges which have no limit to their tax-exempt campuses. Loss of revenue to local governmental units would be compensated by the business as well as cultural benefits a college brings to the community.

Vote YES For Proposition 18

Establishes staggered 4-year terms for members of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board rather than serving at the pleasure of the Governor. Changes scope of the Board's review of decisions of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control by broadening it to permit consideration of evidence against the Department's decision as well as for it. Limits the power of the Governor to remove Board members except for cause.

This amendment was recommended unanimously by the Senate Fact Finding Committee on Business and Industry following public hearings and a two-year study. Broadening the scope of the Board's review to include both contrary and substantiating evidence would give the person appealing a fair and impartial hearing as well as help eliminate abuses and dishonest practices under the present liquor law. The policy of fixed terms with removal for cause only is generally believed to be the most efficient and effective plan for comprising board memberships.

This amendment would make possible the development of a large area of industrial land in the San Francisco Bay area. Present restrictions on sale or transfer of tidelands makes reclamation and such development costly and impractical. Navigation on the waters of the State is protected since this amendment forbids the sale of tidelands used or needed for such purposes. The provision authorizing the Legislature to impose necessary restrictions protects the public interest.

Vote NO On Proposition 15

Permits counties in excess of 400,000, when authorized by the Legislature, to create tax appeals boards to perform equalization functions now performed by county boards of supervisors. County supervisors will determine the compensation of members and adopt rules of procedure. The Legislature will fix the number of boards; number, qualifications, manner of selection, and terms of members; and the procedure in the event of discontinuance of these boards.

Taxpayers would lose their right to appeal to their elected officials if the supervisors relinquish the equalization function. Since supervisors have the responsibility of preparing the county budget and setting the tax rate, they should also have the responsibility of preserving the tax base. With rulings handed down by several different appeals boards within the same county, inconsistency in such rulings would result. The supervisors now sitting as a single board of equalization can be constant in the yardsticks of value they use.

Vote YES For Proposition 16

Amends 32 sections of 12 articles of the Constitution to eliminate obsolete and superseded provisions, and renumbers the sections affected. Makes no substantive changes.

These changes would reduce by six per cent our already overlengthy Constitution and eliminate confusion and inconsistencies within it. All items contained in the Constitution have been checked by the Office of the Legislative Counsel, and there has been no contention that this amendment does anything other than delete obsolete material from our Constitution.

Vote NO On Proposition 17

Changes salary of members of the Legislature from $500 a month to an amount to be fixed by law, but not to exceed $834 a month ($10,000 per year). Increases basic monthly retirement allowance of legislators in accordance with the present retirement formula.

In addition to the arguments presented on Proposition 1 against a salary increase, this proposal is opposed since it would increase the already generous retirement benefits of all qualifying legislators regardless of the salary during their period of service. While this may be equitable to legislators, it is not fair to taxpayers to bear the costs of increased annuities to previously retired legislators.

Vote YES For Proposition 19

Revises and clarifies the law on increasing the compensation of county, city or township officials during their term of office by providing that all members of a plural board with staggered terms will receive the salary increase when one member of the board becomes eligible for it.

This amendment corrects an inequity and hardship in the present law which discriminates against experienced members of a board, council or commission by prohibiting an increase in their salary even though a new member receives a higher compensation. All members of such a plural body do the same job, so all should receive the same salary.

Vote YES For Proposition 19

Revises and clarifies the law on increasing the compensation of county, city or township officials during their term of office by providing that all members of a plural board with staggered terms will receive the salary increase when one member of the board becomes eligible for it.

This amendment corrects an inequity and hardship in the present law which discriminates against experienced members of a board, council or commission by prohibiting an increase in their salary even though a new member receives a higher compensation. All members of such a plural body do the same job, so all should receive the same salary.

Deletes present inoperative provisions of the 1924 Initiative Act governing wrestling and boxing, but retains the provision that the Legislature cannot prohibit wrestling or 12-round boxing contests.

The Legislature should not have complete control over the terms of the boxing initiative act. Presumably, the Legislature could prohibit any contest of a different number of rounds and even define the ground rules so as to make 12-round contests unworkable.

Vote NO On Proposition 21

Provides that in a county, or city and county, with a population of five million or more, the name of an incumbent superior court judge who files for re-election and is not opposed would not appear on the primary or general election ballot and would be declared elected on general election day. Specifies procedure to put incumbent's name on either ballot if write-in campaigns are contemplated and prescribes procedures to be followed in such write-in campaigns.

This amendment would actually make it more difficult for the voter to exercise the write-in privilege by establishing restrictive time limits for the filing of intention to conduct a write-in campaign. Through a long or cumbersome ballot may result, additional democratic election procedure requires a candidates' name, even if unopposed, to be on the ballot. Voters should not be swayed into giving up their fundamental rights by pleas of economy and brevity.

Vote NO On Proposition 22

Restricts the licensing power of the State Board of Osteopathic Examiners to renewal of present licenses; no new licenses will be issued by this Board, and qualified osteopaths who elect to designate themselves "M.D." will be subject to the jurisdiction of the Board of Medical Examiners. Grants the Legislature power to amend the Osteopathic Initiative Act of 1922 and to transfer the functions of the Osteopathic Examiners Board to the Medical Examiners Board, and the number of doctors of osteopathy subject to its jurisdiction reaches 40 or fewer. This bill and four others will implement the merger of the medical and osteopathic professions in California.

Approval of this merger will result in the destruction of the osteopathic profession in California since no new licenses will be granted to osteopathic doctors who do not choose to become "M.D.'s". Confusion will be created in the public mind concerning the kind of training experienced by physicians practicing under an M.D. degree since it will embrace doctors with either medical or osteopathic training. This would also deprive people of their present right to choose from either profession. Since the osteopathic profession has provided a majority of the hospital beds used by the profession from its own funds, destroying the profession will remove potential future hospital beds built without the demand for tax funds.

Vote NO On Proposition 23

Establishes and apportions 50 (instead of the existing 40) senatorial districts. Additional districts allocated to existing single county districts based on population. Provides for election of all senators in 1964, one-half to be elected every two years thereafter. Requires 1963 Legislature to fix boundaries in counties having more than one district. Requires Legislature following 1970 and each subsequent decennial federal census to reapportion senatorial districts based on population, geographic area and economic affinity provided that no county shall have more than six districts and no district shall contain more than three counties.

Past measures to reapportion the Senate on a population basis have been defeated by the Legislature and by the electorate. This substantiates the validity of the present federal plan for legislative representation. Using population as the basis of representation in both houses would result, in effect, in a unicameral legislature with two houses.

The six urban counties which would gain extra seats under this measure already elect 52 of the 80 assemblymen and have the voting strength to elect the Governor and all other state-wide officials. California's well established system of checks and balances would be destroyed by this measure. For instance, the Sixth Assembly District is comprised of 11 counties represented by a single assemblyman while Los Angeles County has 31; however, these same rural counties elect five senators which restores some protection to them. The interests of the urban areas have not suffered in the Senate. A bulletin of the League of California Cities issued on July 18, 1961, reviewed the 1961 legislative session and showed that the Senate outscored the Assembly on bills of major municipal interest. True representation is a complex concept and depends on more than geographical or rural and urban alignment. Adding more senators for some urban counties does not guarantee better representation than they now enjoy.

Vote YES For Proposition 24

Declares existence, purposes, and objectives of world communist movement. Defines communist and subversive organizations and denies them political party status and all tax exemption. Prohibits members of such organizations or advocates of subversive doctrines from holding public office or employment with State or any public agency, or from receiving any tax exemption. Requires teachers and other employees of public educational institutions to answer congressional and legislative inquiries concerning communist affiliation and subversion. Imposes conditions on use of public buildings and property.

This measure will give California the strongest and most effective anti-subversive laws in the nation and will correct the defects in our present ineffectual laws.

The proposal recognizes the realities of self-preservation and the inherent right of democracy to protect itself against internal and external enemies. The real danger of increased Communist and other subversive activity requires our abandonment of reluctance to inquire into beliefs of persons in positions of public trust. Since Communists aim at destroying our system, they are not entitled to the same rights and privileges as loyal Americans. Exposing the enemy within, curbing his opportunity to spread sedition, preventing his infiltration into fields of government and education, and making it impossible for him to give us security against the forcible overthrow of our government.

This measure will give California the strongest and most effective anti-subversive laws in the nation and will correct the defects in our present ineffectual laws.

Proposition Z

Sierra Madre Taxpayers Urged To Vote No

All taxpayers of the City of Sierra Madre are urged to vote NO on Proposition Z by the Taxpayers Committee Against This Proposition.

Proposition Z is a proposal for a general obligation bond issue to finance the construction of certain flood control facilities within portions of the City of Sierra Madre. While no definitive engineering plans have been approved for the proposed facilities, the City Council has indicated that certain works with a total estimated cost of $175,000 will be constructed. Of this total, it is proposed that approximately $50,000 will be spent in a project which will be of direct benefit to only a very small portion of the resident taxpayers of the city. The opponents of this issue point out that the vast majority of property owners and taxpayers who will pay for substantially all of this project will not receive any direct benefit therefrom.

The Committee further points out that there are other means whereby the total cost of the contemplated project can be placed upon only those who will directly benefit from it, such as is done in the case of sewer assessment districts. Further, the Committee draws attention to the fact that the bond issue proceeds will not be sufficient to finance the contemplated project. The City Council has indicated that it will resort to other funds which already have been budgeted for vital needed civic programs to make up the difference between the bond issue proceeds of $100,000 and the estimated cost of $175,000. The opponents of Proposition Z argue that the proposed facilities should be separately and totally financed and that other and more important programs should not suffer from lack of money which would result from the diversion of funds previously budgeted.

Such diversion of funds further magnifies the fact that Proposition Z will not benefit the majority of taxpayers but would, in fact, result in depriving them of needed civic programs.

Vote NO On Proposition A

Los Angeles County Bond Proposition A will, if approved by two-thirds vote of the voters voting on the proposition, authorize the issuance and sale of general obligation bonds of the County of Los Angeles in the amount of $17,000,000.

The proceeds of the bonds will be used for the purpose of providing funds for the acquisition of land and the construction of facilities in various parts of the County for the detention, training or custodial placement of juveniles, and for uses incidental thereto, including the purchase of equipment therefor.

Vote NO On Proposition B

To avoid the dangerous fiscal practice of undervaluing special earmarked taxes, vote "No" on proposition "B".

Citizens are urged to study this proposition. It would require a mandatory special tax rate for regional parks and recreation. The Board of Supervisors would be forced to levy at least a minimum 5-cent tax rate annually in perpetuity for this purpose. It could go as high as 12½ cents per $100 of assessed valuation.

The elected Board of Supervisors has the responsibility for financing the County's needs and fixing the tax rate. On occasion part of the appropriation for regional parks and recreation have been diverted to other County purposes deemed more important by the Supervisors. This is a large and growing county with many competing demands for the tax dollar. The Board of Supervisors must have power to decide which expenditures should have priority in order to control the tax burden. In this section, desirable projects must sometimes be deferred.

Vote YES On Proposition C

Under this moderate proposed Charter change, the civil service will still be preserved and County employees will be prevented from engaging in either county or city political affairs, or in the election of county or city officials.

This proposal will not cost the taxpayers any money.

Vote NO On Proposition D

Proposed County Charter Amendment No. 3 amends Sections 4, 5 and 6 of the Charter of the County of Los Angeles and will, if approved by a majority vote of the voters voting on the proposition, provide that the Board of Supervisors of the County shall consist of seven supervisors instead of five beginning at noon on the first Monday in December, 1964, and will provide for the division of the County into seven supervisorial districts by the Board of Supervisors and the election of two additional supervisors prior to that date. Each incumbent supervisor will continue to serve for the term for which he was elected in the district in which he resides.

Vote NO On Proposition E

A "No" vote on proposition "E" is recommended to maintain our "home rule" type of government, to halt discrimination against our County and to insure the voting rights of free-thinking people.

A most precious right of Americans is to vote and when the ballot is taken away, as this proposition attempts, we lose a sacred privilege of our Constitution and our cherished "home rule" form of government. Don't allow this legislation to jeopardize your constitutional rights. Uphold your democratic rights with all your strength and defeat this proposition with a "No" vote.

What Is Being Done

tional Fallout Shelter Survey, Marking and Stocking Program. Each community in California that has shelter capability in existing buildings has been notified of the location of these buildings. In some communities, if licenses have been signed, the federal government is marking these shelters and then providing them with stocks of food, water, medical supplies and radiation meters. Local Civil Defense Offices can advise you of the buildings close to you that will provide shelter space. Some communities are listing the buildings in the local newspapers.

5. What will happen to my children if an attack comes during school hours?

ANSWER: On October 11, 1962, the State Board of Education made it mandatory for every public school in California to have written Civil Defense plans. Many school districts are preparing these plans. Others already have done so. It is suggested that you contact the principal of the school your child attends for further information.

6. Is it best to evacuate or stay where you are?

ANSWER: Generally speaking, evacuation is considered less and less useful as an effective tool of protection against the effects of modern weapons. With diminishing warning time and the possibility of nuclear spread fallout, if nuclear war occurs, persons should try to have considerable material (mass) between themselves and the fallout. This means—try to find shelter with adequate protection, ventilation and supplies.

7. Is there any one pamphlet that gives good general background information?

ANSWER: Yes. The federal government has printed a 56-page pamphlet entitled "Fallout Protection." It should be available at your

"Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and His righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you."
— The Bible Matt. 6:33

Battle About Over

After one of the most heated General election battles even the old-timers recall, the tumult and shouting has ended until the Primary of 1964. There are a few days left for name calling back and forth, but our last newspaper has been put to bed until after the results are in next Tuesday night. For us the race is over.

The races, four in particular, have been vigorously fought. On the local front here in Sierra Madre have been the campaigns for Superintendent of Schools and the Governorship. Only slightly away have been the Propositions, the General Bond Issue, I wouldn't even imply that I can foresee the outcome of any of them; that isn't the purpose of this column, at least not at this time.

I only want to make an observation now, which some of you may consider a trifle unusual. Not one of the candidates in any race has openly asked for the editorial support of this newspaper. I have been asked by each of the candidates to cast my personal ballot for them, but not one has suggested that this newspaper support his candidacy.

Are these fellows getting shy? Not a chance. They are as brash and bold as ever, but they are becoming much wiser than the politicians of old.

I'll have to admit quite honestly that it is a courageous thing for any newspaper to put the editorial stamp of approval on a candidate. But courage has nothing to do with it. It means more often than not that the candidate has been given the kiss of death, and the more laudatory the newspaper editor may have been the more likely it is that he has sent his candidate down the political drain.

While everyone turns to the newspaper for opinion and news, there are mighty few readers today who consider the editor capable of making their choice for public office.

This is particularly true in the local campaigns, for certainly there must be very few Sierra Madre homeowners who haven't had one or all the candidates knocking at their doors and asking for their support. They've had ample opportunity to study the pedigree of each one of them, and know as much about them as the hometown editor. Maybe more, in fact.

I'm inclined to believe any endorsement I may make on the local scene might serve to only muddy the waters more than they are already. I'll admit frankly that I haven't made up my own mind in several cases, much less propose to assist any unwitting reader to make up his.

But at least one state politician still gives strong consideration to the power of the press. I am speaking of the former vice president of the United States, Richard M. (Dick) Nixon, who sent me a telegram last fall that I'll always treasure. I think it's a gem.

The telegram came the morning after he announced his intention to seek the California governorship. And here is what it said:

"In view of the decision I have announced this evening, I would particularly appreciate having the benefit of your advice and counsel on some of our California problems, and I shall be hoping that there will be an opportunity for us to discuss them personally in the near future." This came about in Kern County this past spring.

I thought it was a nice gesture, coming from a former vice president who came within a whisker of being in the White House. But I think he was taking too much for granted if he believed I could exert any influence in helping him solve California's problems.

As a matter of fact, he should be a bit miffed with me, if anything. After all, wasn't I the one who put the kiss of death on him back in the fall of 1960. I endorsed his candidacy for the Presidency, and you know as well as I what happened.

Perhaps he would be in the White House right now if I and a couple of hundred other editors around the country had kept our typewriters quiet and let the voters make up their own minds.

I must honestly confess right now that in 15 years of giving editorial endorsements of candidates for offices running the gamut of schools trustees to President of the United States, I have picked very few winners.

Can it be that I have a talent of picking losers, or is it that our enlightened readers of today don't like to be told for whom they should cast their ballots?

I'm inclined to believe the latter is true, much as I hate to admit it. Newspapers don't have that kind of influence these days.

My only point, of course, is that American's don't swallow every word that's printed in a newspaper any more. They like to make up their own minds, and that is all to their credit.

I believe they still welcome editorial opinion, just as they listen to opinions of political campaigners. It helps them to think, quickens their interest. But, unless they are mighty mushy-headed in the first place, it isn't likely that such opinions will sway them.

Maybe we newspaper are losing some of much-professed power of the press. If we are I don't think it is necessarily bad.

After all, our only objective in editorializing in the first place is to make people think. When they reach the point where they are able to reach their own decisions we should feel a glow of success rather than failure.

Freedom At Any Price

by Henry V. Witty

If you feel that your school or school district does not place sufficient emphasis on the basic skills of reading, writing, and arithmetic, and if you believe that parents and taxpayers have the right and the responsibility to participate in governing their local schools, then you as a parent and taxpayer must do everything in your power to elect Dr. Max Rafferty to the office of State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Dr. Max Rafferty's opponent for this office, Dr. Richardson, believes that the superintendent is "a vital office of great influence but little power." Dr. Richardson feels that he would be better able to cooperate with the State Board of Education members and the rest of the State educational hierarchy than would Dr. Rafferty. In other words, Dr. Richardson desires to give wholehearted cooperation to the individuals responsible for pulling our state educational system down from 5th in the nation to 35th according to the U.S. Armed Forces Institute test ratings.

The ultra liberal "retrogressives" in our State Department of Education believe that the ship of learning must be allowed to continue on its present course. Its faulty compass must not be replaced by one capable of indicating the necessity of a change in course. This ship would be captained by a man dedicated to the socialistic principles of so-called progressive education, and the prow of this ship of learning would remain headed in the direction of the rocky shoals of liberalistic "togetherness."

If we, the people of California, believe that the State Board of Education members should not be appointed, then we should and will take the constitutional steps to control this board by necessary legislation or referendum. By taking this action, we can then have an education system administered by a Superintendent with a State Board of Education agreeable to his ideology and methods.

Dr. Richardson has obtained the endorsement of groups in our State who fear a change from the status quo. Why? Because Dr. Rafferty has served warning that, if elected there will definitely be changes. These changes will most certainly disturb the tranquility and security of individuals who, under the present protective wing of the State Department of Education, feel safe and smug in their positions within our State Educational System.

Let us consider the findings of the Joint Interim Committee on the Public Education System published by the Senate of the State of California, 1961 — page 68. "This Commission has found considerable evidence that the State Department of Education is deliberately flouting the laws of this State."

"This Commission has found the State Department of Education in its philosophy of 'Progressive Education' is using all the children of this State as guinea pigs."

"This Commission views with alarm the mushrooming bureaucracy of the State Department of Education."

This is the department that Dr. Rafferty's opponent believes is doing a fine job; this is the department whose policy Dr. Rafferty believes should be drastically changed.

The man elected to this office will quite likely administer our educational system for the next two or three decades. The result of this election will either mean the beginning of the long road back to solid, sound educational principles or a continuation of policies using our children as pawns of State, National and International Socialists.

Dr. Rafferty has no love for "the phoney sophisticates who clutter up our col-

Hermit of The Sierra Madre

with Den Murray

There was a small American flag rippling above the mouth of the Hermit's cave when I arrived. "Yes," he explained, "I'm celebrating the awakening of our President. True, he slumbered long and inexplicably right up to election eve. But he finally woke up. And that's what counts. Better late than never."

I asked, "Do you think the sudden dramatic in-calling of national leaders for consultation on the 'crisis' followed by the world-shaking speech was actually the result of an overnight discovery of what was going on in Cuba?" "No, of course not. This move had been in the works for months. I can show you clippings from news magazines and newspapers months back flatly predicting a sensational move in the Cuban situation before the November elections."

"What do you mean by 'the move was in the works'?" Are you saying it was certain? Bound to be implemented?" "No. It was what you call a provisional or contingent plan. Jack would launch forth on his fall campaigning to elect more Democrats to office. If he discovered on the tour that the majority of Americans had become so fed up with Khrushchev's arrogant flaunting of the Monroe Doctrine that they were prepared to risk nuclear war to stop him — then Jack would give the voters what they were demanding."

"And you figure he discovered this demand on his campaign tour?" "He certainly did. They threw 'Cuba' at him even in the densest Democratic stronghold. Not only that, but he became furious at Jack's inseriously interested in the California Water Plan. I, for one, never realized its importance until, a dozen years ago, my son Frank got a job with the State Water Resources Board and made us realize how dangerously the area we lived in, among others, was overdrawng its water entitlement, and what disasters the entire state was escaping only because of the grace of God.

Well, the good Lord has already done so much for California that years ago it was high time we did something for ourselves, yet it seems to me that nothing really important was done until Brown got forceful about it. There were great obstacles and much misunderstanding which had defeated other efforts for many years but he didn't let them defeat him. So, without a word against anyone else, it seems to me that in this gubernatorial race as in a certain singing commercial every baseball fan has heard "the difference is clear — it's the water, it's the water."

But if we search our souls and vote as conscience dictates we'll be able to give thanks on Thanksgiving Day. For by that time most of us will realize that most of the awful things some politicians predicted if they weren't elected aren't going to happen.

Again if my prediction discomforts anyone, it is only fair to add that I picked the Giants to win the World Series, too.

And, whatever happens, aren't we Southwest Coasters lucky as compared to the Southeast Coasters? It's a wonder some of those hurricanes haven't blown the Hat off of Cape Hatteras.

Arcadia Auxiliary of Methodist Hospital Holds Membership Brunch

Mrs. Frank H. Ott, membership chairman of the Arcadia Auxiliary of the Methodist Hospital, welcomed members and prospective members to their annual membership brunch and fashion show last Tuesday at 10 o'clock held in the lovely gardens and pool area of the Stephen A. Compas home, 1005 Fallen Leaf Road.

Wessel's Suburbia of Sierra Madre showed "Fashions for Your Active Life." Professional models wore the exciting fashions ranging from active sportswear to dressy cocktail dresses.

Mrs. Vaughan Edgar was chairman of the affair, assisted by Mrs. Fred Jaunke, who was in charge of theme decorations. Others working on the committee were Mrs. Fordyce Johnson, chairman, and Mrs. Elmer Ziegler, food, and Mrs. Wynne Going, tea table arrangements.

"The hospital and how we serve it" was the theme of the affair, representing the activities of the auxiliary's 410 active members, 40 associate members and 112 life members. Within the hospital there are 25 areas staffed by auxiliary members. An array of small displays was set up representing the workings of many of these areas.

A cheery cherry red and white color scheme was carried out depicting the color of the auxiliary uniform.

The auxiliary provides the "Plus Service" for the hospital.

are very busy here and I do not have the time. If you think about it and still need me sometime this spring would you again write to me and I will see if I cannot spare the time to give you my help.

It's true, so help me, only the letter was written in typical Ozarkian language; it was returned by the Secretary of the President to the draftboard, and yours truly had an opportunity to see it... yep, you guessed it this man served three years overseas in the Pacific Operations. Came out of the service with "honors" and a T-Sgt.

At this point I am reminded of a kind of amusing incident that happened recently in the city of San Francisco. Mrs. Roberts Col. Baker Zoo was campaigning for funds to build a needed "Reptile House," and from the platform before a gathering of interested people, she made the following remark, "Surely there must be a widower who will give us $6,000 to erect this as a memorial to a dear wife." And it was a woman that made this remark... "What a World!"

And here is another one taken from a California news media. Seems that John W. Adams, of San Leandro, was filing suit for divorce after 35 years separation from his wife, when he remarked to the Judge "I just got tired, just felt like being free again." And sometimes that is the way life is.

We wish we could feel cheerier than we have managed to feel about a story of Mr. and Mrs. George Opp, who have just paid the municipal taxes for 582 fellow citizens of Rockport, Missouri.

The news account said the Opps, who operate a hotel in Rockport, asked the City Clerk to tote up for them, the total of many taxes owed by everybody in town. It came to $19,209. The Opps wrote him a check for the tab.

Last spring the Opps gave the city $7,000 to make some downtown street improvement. Rockporters say the Opps do these things "out of the goodness of their hearts."

With fellow taxpayers like the Opps to look forward to, we have been figuring on leaving this newspaper and moving to Rockport.

Still, though, there's the Parkinson's law. That law states that expenditures always rise to meet income. Somebody gives your taxes back... maybe you, yourself, just levy that much more in taxes to spend. And get stuck double. And so on. Could be the Opps will move away from Rockport.

Nope, we'll wait. We're just a mite leery of something for nothing in taxes... even from the kindly Opps... be nice to have people in Sierra Madre like this though.

I have heard several comments recently about the number of hours that I work and the way that I work, and every time this subject comes up it always reminds me of what Jack Benny said a few years back — "I think working keep me young. If I had quit a couple of years ago, I'd be an old man by now." — look around you and you can see how true this statement is.

Speaking of aging, brings this closing remark to mind, "Youth thinks intelligence a good substitute for experience, and we older people are sure that experience is a substitute for intelligence" ... What a World! ... I wouldn't miss a single minute of it... be seeing you around now and then, I hope, I hope, I hope.

32 Children of
S.M. Schools
At Youth Concert

Many Sierra Madre, Pasadena and outlying area children will attend the first of the series of Youth Concerts at the Civic Auditorium this Sunday. In order to accommodate the large attendance concerts are given at two different times.

Henry Lewis, conducting the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra, has carefully chosen the first concert material to appeal to the child's imagination. The Pasadena Junior Philharmonic Committee presents this concert for the enjoyment of children and their parents.

Ticket booklets may be purchased at the Pasadena Civic Auditorium, Nov. 2 from 10 a.m. until noon. Some of the children attending the youth concerts from Sierra Madre are: Sally Hensel, Scott Harris, Danny Nign, Marianne Brown, Debrah Cohen, Curt Harris, Mary Ames, Rebecca Stewart, Tucker Cheadle, Gretchen Popp, Tod Miller, Laurie Walters, Pat Mackle, Julie Wyrick, Ann Morash, David O'Neill, Richard Garbaccio.

Among the children attending from Sierra Mesa School are Noralee Bush, Nancy Kay Role, Nancy Nelson, Patricia Poolman, Diane Gibson, Gil Keppeler, Resa Valois, Johnny Tavis, Sarah Rolph, Dan Tolfree, Doug Mitchell, Jessica Stowell, Randall Erickson, Kathryn and Jeffrey Burke and Jim Kilpatrick.

Mrs. Robert K. (Laurie) Mitchell is PTA Music Chairman for Sierra Madre and Sierra Mesa Elementary schools. Anyone wanting more information should call her at EL 5-2946.

Bicycle Safety Rodeo
To Be November 16

The Sierra Madre PTA, with the help of the Kiwanis Club, the Police Department and the California Highway Patrol, again will sponsor a bicycle Safety Rodeo.

At Sierra Madre School, it will be on Thursday, Nov. 15. Sierra Mesa School will have it on Friday, Nov. 16. Both will be after school at 2:30 o'clock.

At this time bicycles will be given a mechanical and safety riding test.

Previous to this there will be an assembly at both schools with explanations and films pertaining to the safe riding of bicycles and there will be written tests in the classrooms.

The importance of the program cannot be over-emphasized in the light of recent accidents.

The PTA meeting for November deals also with this subject and will have Sgt. Jack Lucarelli from the California Highway Patrol speaking on bicycle safety and Lt. Martin Stornie of the Pasadena Police speaking on juvenile problems.

Be alert near the schools, schools and playgrounds. It is good insurance.

Be safe today, be here tomorrow.

The laws of self-preservation do many strange things to one's emotional balance, as was proven last week. The papers are full of vivid testimonials of shoppers clawing their way through markets grabbing anything in sight off the shelves, regardless of price or need. It is true, our situation is one not to be taken lightly. However, with pursuits such as we all have witnessed, our worst enemy can be ourselves and our best friends. If our reactions are so strong at a mere threat, stop and think how we would react if the real thing comes along. If ever we come to a crisis, every last man, woman and child will need to be schooled to keep their heads and be able to help out, not only themselves, but each other. Are those who built bomb shelters going to have to take up arms against us, their friends and neighbors, or are we going to find the courage to bear our burden and do what we must do? Panic is not the answer.

Halloween brought out the goblins and ghosts en masse this week and parties were numerous on these hills.

Dr. and Mrs. Howard Owen of Villa Mesa presided over the spaghetti pot as their children entertained some of their friends.

Kristi had for her guests Robin Prescott, Ginny Frederick, Gwendolite Amthor, Tracy Dunning, Kathy Galbraith, Kathy Gleim and Margaret Rostker.

Randi invited Patricia Ancona, Lorrie Knoll and Barbara Burke. After dinner and a few games at the house, the children all went trick-or-treating.

On Old House Road, the A. J. Huber home rocked with excitement and merriment as the seventh grade girls of Assumption of B. V. M. School played games and consumed gallons of apple cider and seemingly tons of doughnuts.

There were four co-hostesses for the affair. They were Karen Huber, Marilyn Heino, Carol Rogers and Patty Kendall. Their teacher, Miss Gloria Gutierrez, also was invited for the fun.

The guest list included Linda Bochinski, Linda Roberts, Linda Morelli, Nancy Park, Ann McAlpine, Laurie Davis, Charleen Mallock, Stephanie Terrell, Chris Coughlin, Bernadette Landi, Beth Markov, Ann Harris, Kathy Moynahan, Joan Thiele, Mary Jo Mulqueen, Kathy Wright, Nancy Powers, Ellen Gleason, Bonnie McMannus, Rita Jagielski, Carolyn Winthrop, Moira Kearney, Debbie Blake, Kathy Sujata, Sharman Voden, Corrine Valesquez, Marcella Hernandez, Linda Rimpau, Linda Ronzoni, Mary Ann Harmon, Trudi Phillips, Margaret O'Laughlin, Wendy Gabriel, Margaret Fahey, Ann McLoughlin and Donna Haddock.

The Kinneloa Canyon Club under the presidency of Mrs. Wilfred Hazen again is going to offer a most attractive incentive for its members on their meeting of November 14 at 10 a.m. (a date you'll certainly want to mark on the calendar). The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. John Gates at 1960 Kinclair Drive. Mrs. Gus Krause will be co-hostess. The entertainment will be a color film provided by the Bell Telephone Company on the "Strange and Interesting Case of the Cosmic Ray." What could be more timely and interesting.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stevenson of Sierra Madre Villa have just returned from an exciting trip in their own plane. They went up to Vancouver and then to Harrison Hot Springs on an autumn tour to see the lovely and colorful foliage of Indian Summer. Esther said it put her in mind of the fjords of Norway. Upon their return they stopped for the last day of the Seattle Fair and had dinner in the Space Needle.

Mrs. A. E. Sandblom of Kinneloa was hostess last week for the Women's Circle meeting of the Mission Covenant Church. The 23 ladies in attendance busied themselves making stuffed animals and clothing for the missions in foreign lands. At this meeting, Mrs. Caroline Ranier, who just recently has returned from missionary work in Manila, spoke to them of her work in the Philippines. She brought along many pictures as well as samples of some of the craft work done in the island. Dessert and coffee were served.

The King Fredrick Motel at Solvang was like a part of our little community last weekend, for it housed a number of our hillites as well as many couples from Hastings Ranch.

The party was instigated by A. W. (Bill) Olson and his wife, Pat. It included all of the men who had started out from an original "four" years ago to many more who have played golf together over a period of several years. They decided to get the whole group together with their wives and make it a tournament weekend for both classes. Bing Crosby couldn't have planned anything better!

Those able to come were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hardison, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mardian, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Stearns and Mr. and Mrs. Don Hays, all of our area. From the Hastings area were Mr. and Mrs. Al Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Brewster Benedict, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Paxson and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wright. From San Marino were Mr. and Mrs. Tony Boland, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Farmer, and from Altadena, Mr. and Mrs. Dom Giangregorio.

Any one who has a concern which they would like to ask the group to lift in prayer is invited to attend, or to call the church office with the concern. In this day of peril to all the world, everyone is invited to attend, and to share in the prayer vigil that night.

Library Careers Are Popular In Sierra Madre

Sierra Madre can boast more librarians per capita than any place we know. At present there are at least seven Sierra Madre residents attending Immaculate Heart College in California. Those attending Immaculate Heart College are Harriet McCloone, Elizabeth (Mrs. William) Keith, and David Gourdeau. Students at the University of Southern California include Margaret (Mrs. William) Tweedie and Charity (Mrs. David) Kirkpatrick; the University of San Francisco, Judy Potter (Mrs. Donald) Nollan; the University of California at Berkeley, Catherine Schwartz. Most of these students expect to graduate sometime in the next year.

It is further interesting to note the professional librarians who reside in Sierra Madre. First on the list is Lulu Moore, retired from the Sierra Madre Public Library, who is indeed the first lady of librarianship in this community. Alice (Mrs. James) Winslow is librarian at the Congregational Church. Lufner was formerly in the Philippines, Manila and Balboa Heights, Panamal Canal U.S. Government Libraries. Elizabeth Reeds, a new resident of Sierra Madre, comes from the Indianapolis Public Library. Homer Fletcher, City Librarian of Arcadia, resides in Sierra Madre. Constance (Mrs. David S.) Wood was formerly in the Portland

Public Library. Children's librarians include Helga (Mrs. Charles) Abbe, currently librarian in the Temple City Branch of the Los Angeles County Library, and Gloria (Mrs. Harry G.) Hinshaw of the Sierra Madre Public Library.

Another unusual distinction for Sierra Madre is that Library Board Chairman George Lindsay, who is also pastor of the Congregational Church, is a professional librarian. Mr. Lindsay's experience includes work in public libraries as well as in seminary libraries.

Lola Bullock Entertains

Mrs. Lola Bullock, 42 Windsor Lane, entertained the social group of the Friendship Club with a tea. There were 16 ladies present and all seemed to enjoy the fireplace which was burning very friendly-like.

There was a business meeting and lots of visiting. They all seemed very happy.

Mrs. Swanson, who was too ill to come, called on the phone and wished all of them a very nice party.

Democrats Ready For Election

The Sierra Madre Democratic Club Headquarters at 32 W. Sierra Madre Blvd. will be the focal point of election day activities for Sierra Madre's 2,000 registered Democrats. The Headquarters' telephone number is EL 5-7201.

Paul Foote, club get-out-the-vote chairman, announces that other volunteers will check the polling place lists late on election day and phone Democrats who have not voted. Anyone interested in helping with this work may phone headquarters or Paul Foote, EL 6-1047.

Jim Hold, club president, announces that due to the great Democratic activity in Sierra Madre, the club headquarters will remain open election night. Radio and TV coverage will be available for all, as well as tally boards. All interested Democrats are encouraged to join in this activity.

Political Smear Claimed

Faked Photographs Exposed

Faked photographs and hate literature—calling Democrats Red appeasers—have come to light in pamphlets on the bookshelves of Republican Party Headquarters in Southern California and Birch Society book stores.

Richard Nixon, Republican candidate for Governor, said one pamphlet was "disgraceful," but has done nothing to stop its distribution. Eugene Wyman, Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, charged.

One pamphlet—"California Dynasty of Communism"—has been distributed at various public appearances of Nixon, Wyman added.

In a press conference calling attention to the pamphlets, Wyman said:

"The old Nixon has returned. In the past, he and his brain, Murray Chotiner, attacked the loyalty of Democrats by using pink-colored paper.

"Today the GOP is selling books that are red in color and libelous in content."

Shortly after the Wyman statement, the GOP headquarters pulled the pamphlet off the book shelves—but began sending interested persons to the various John Birch Society book stores which still sell the pamphlet.

A second pamphlet, "Pat Brown and the CDC," uses faked photographs and other devices to suggest Governor Brown is a pawn of the California Democratic Council (CDC).

This pamphlet, which consists only of photographs and captions, creates the impression, Wyman charges, that (1) the California Democratic Council is a subversive organization and that (2) Governor Brown is subservient to the CDC and is, in fact, un-American.

"The California Dynasty of Communism," written by Karl Prussion, who claims to have been an FBI counterespionage, shows a picture of Governor Brown bowing, hands folded, as if in prayer. Besides this picture is a photograph of Nikita Khrushchev, who appears in a fit of rage.

The caption on the photo of the Governor says: "Premier Khrushchev, we who admire you, we who respect you, welcome you to California."

The caption with the Khrushchev picture says: "When we spit in the face of an American, he thinks it is dew."

Actually, the picture of the Governor was taken of him bowing his head to a Laotian girl who was in the United States as a guest of the State Department, Wyman pointed out.

"The editors of this pamphlet merely cropped the Laotian girl—and Mrs. Brown—from the picture, leaving the Governor bowing," Wyman said.

He continued: "This picture is a phoney, from the captions to the art itself. The entire book is a phoney. It labels nearly every member of the Democratic slate. It calls them Communist dupes, sympathizers and subversive.

"The only reason we Democrats call attention to it is that it demonstrates what kind of campaign Richard Nixon is running. He repudiates the pamphlet in public, yet he allows it to be sold in Republican headquarters. He says he opposes the Birch Society, yet his supporters distribute their literature in his public meetings."

In the second pamphlet, "Pat Brown and the CDC," the Governor is shown apparently applauding a decision of the California Democratic Council. The implication is that the Governor is applauding a resolution by the Council to admit Red China into the United Nations.

"The fact is, that Governor Brown in this resolution and in several other CDC actions, has openly disagreed with the Council," Wyman said.

The caption under the photograph quotes the Governor:

"I want this organization (CDC) to flourish and grow."

Wyman said:

"This photograph and caption are another instance of the big lie, the political smear that Nixon and Chotiner are so clever at spreading."

Actually, the photograph was taken in the chamber of the Assembly in Sacramento. The Governor was not applauding a CDC decision—he and all the Assemblymen present were applauding the steps of a brave little girl crippled by polio who, using crutches and braces, had walked forward to greet the Governor.

"Murray Chotiner has publicly boasted that 1 million copies of this second pamphlet will be circulated in California before election.

"Caspar Weinberger, in answer to my charges that the Prussion pamphlet is a smear, called the pamphlet 'silly' and said we Democrats should worry ourselves with important issues."

"Let me remind Mr. Weinberger that these pamphlets are not 'silly.' They question the patriotism, the courage and the integrity of the Governor, the Attorney General and others."

"Nixon repudiates the pamphlets but he encourages their distribution. He is, in fact, a party to these faked photographs, fabricated and distorted quotes and captions and libelous statements."

FAKE PHOTOS SMEAR GOVERNOR BROWN AS 'RED'

There is no more shameful a propaganda technique than the deliberate doctoring of photographs and text to injure a political opponent. Here is documented proof that Richard Nixon's campaign has sunk to that low level.

THE REAL PHOTO

In the real picture, Governor and Mrs. Brown are greeting a Laotian minstrel girl on an official visit to Los Angeles, sponsored by the U.S. State Department. The photo was taken in the patio of the Governor's home on September 8, 1962. Governor Brown was greeting his guest in the same respectful manner that she greeted him—a custom observed in the homeland of this American ally.

— P. Brown

"WHEN WE SPIT IN THE FACE OF AN AMERICAN, HE THINKS IT'S DEW."

— N. Khrushchev

The caption attributed to Governor Brown is a lie. The Governor greeted Khrushchev—who was on a State visit to California—with formal, appropriate remarks in the normal diplomatic manner. Khrushchev's insulting words, in the caption beside his picture, appear to be directed at Governor Brown.

This fake photo appears in the Nixon-sponsored pamphlet, "Pat Brown and the CDC". The Governor is supposedly applauding a CDC resolution supporting the entry of Red China into the United Nations—which the Governor is AGAINST! Out-of-context quotations add to the hoax.

Pat Brown says:

The real photo, taken in the Chamber of the Assembly at Sacramento, shows the Governor and other State officials applauding the courage of a polio-stricken child, who had just made her way to the dais.

Murray Chotiner, Nixon's campaign strategist, has publicly boasted that 1,000,000 copies of this hoax pamphlet have been printed and will be circulated in California.

Governor Brown is publicly on record as being OPPOSED to Red China's admission to the UN—and he is also on public record against other CDC positions which the pamphlet, by the adroit use of out-of-context statements, makes it appear he endorses. He is AGAINST the abolition of loyalty oaths; AGAINST the abolition of the House Committee on Un-American activities; AGAINST Communist speakers on our campuses.

RICHARD NIXON HAS SAID: "I WILL CONDUCT A CLEAN CAMPAIGN ON THE ISSUES." IS THIS WHAT HE HAD IN MIND?

Fourth Annual Rose Show Scheduled For Nov. 10-11

Local rose lovers were invited today to enter their prize roses and to attend the fourth annual Thanksgiving Rose Show scheduled November 10 and 11 in the "Pageant of Roses Garden" at Rose Hills Memorial Park.

The show, which is expected to draw more than 1,000 cut flower and rose arrangement entries, is co-sponsored by Rose Hills and the Rio San Gabriel Rose Society.

John van Barneveld, A.R.S. district director, has announced that there is no entry or admission fee at any show in the Rose Hills garden, and ample free parking also is available. The garden, an official American Rose Society display and test garden containing thousands of rose bushes of 276 varieties, is open to the public without charge daily during daylight hours throughout the year.

"Members of the rose society will be at the show to help entrants name their roses properly and place them in the right class," van Barneveld said. "Entries should be delivered to the garden between 7 and 10:30 a.m. on Saturday, Nov. 10. Following the judging, the show will be open to the public from noon to 5 p.m. that day and from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Sunday, Nov. 11."

R. L. McNitt Jr., Rose Hills president, has announced that there will be a number of special awards at the show in addition to the 18 trophies, many prizes and hundreds of ribbons usually offered by Rose Hills in the more than 150 horticultural and arrangement classes.

"For example, we will give a one-year membership in the American Rose Society to any blue ribbon winner who has never been a member of a rose society," McNitt said, "and purchase orders for $10 worth of rose bushes also are offered in numerous classifications."

"In the rose arrangement competition, the special award will be seven copies of the new book on flower arranging by Norman Edwards, who has graciously agreed to autograph them."

McNitt said complete details regarding awards and classifications are given in a rose show schedule which may be obtained free of charge by telephoning, writing or visiting Rose Hills.

Letters to the Editor

I may not believe in what the man says, but I will defend to my death his right to say it.—(similar words of Voltaire) To the Editor:

Lately, there has been an increasing amount of criticism leveled at the PTA.

Some of it is valid and constructive. Some apparently is the result of personal grudges. Some apparently is based on partial information only.

In defense of the PTA, may I say that any action taken on the national and state levels is first very thoroughly studied, with legal counsel available at all times, before any final decision is made. These decisions are carefully considered in turn on each successively lower level. These actions do not always please all people. Mistakes have been made. But by and large, the PTA has made wise decisions.

Things we take for granted today were once "hot" PTA issues, e.g., kindergartens which we now consider a routine part of school life have been a standard operation in California for only about 15 years. Prior to that they were optional. In even earlier days, they were considered "radical," "socialistic," "trying to break up families," etc.

Just so today we label "radical," changes which are advocated. Now, I am neither supporting nor attacking specific stands that PTA has taken. But I do suggest that we search our own minds and motives before we criticize. We must be sure we have full knowledge, and just partial fact, hearsay, or prejudice, before we castigate.

I also suggest that those people who do have valid and constructive criticisms take a more active part in actual administration of PTA units and work for what they think is right, instead of just sitting back and bellyaching.

The PTA is a very worthwhile organization. Parents and schools owe this organization a very great deal for its efforts in behalf of the well-being of all children.

For the record, I am a thorough-going Republican. My family were charter members of the Republican Party. By grandfather was a National Committeeman and delegate to four presidential conventions. I was raised in the lusty, gutsy tradition of the early Republican Party which had the guts to initiate and fight for

Local Fire Inspection Program Urges Cooperation of Residents

The Fire Department Home Inspection Program, which is in its second year now, is still proving to be invaluable to the homeowner, or tenants, as a source of information to help make their home safe from fire.

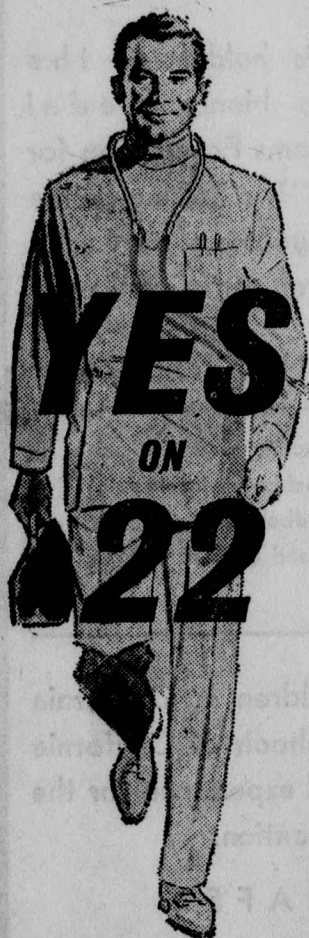

Last year, 906 homes were visited by the Fire Inspectors, resulting in much appreciation for the service rendered. This being one of the returns of your fire protection tax dollar, the Fire Prevention Bureau is ready and willing to assist with any problems the citizens may have. Due to various situations, if no one is home during the days of the week, please call the fire department at EL 5-1414 for an appointment for an inspector to call on you.

One of the points that we do stress during these inspections, is the safe practices of using or handling dangerous materials. One of our recent fires was caused by the use of a flammable solvent for cleaning curtain material. The fumes traveled to a point of ignition, in this case possibly the pilot light on the stove, and resulted in a flash fire. One direction of the fire caused damage to the service porch area. The fumes had also traveled the other direction into the bedroom, and when the flash fire occurred it caught the bedspread and mattress on fire. It was unusually fortunate that the lady was not burned seriously as the fumes literally exploded in
